

Rules of the library of the University of Sri Jayewardenepura

1. Borrowers are responsible for library materials checked out to them until they are returned to the library.
2. The total responsibility of personal library accounts should be taken by the user and the library will no longer be responsible for any complaints made after activating individual user accounts.
3. The library is automated with a computer-based circulation system. Therefore:
 - a. The responsibility of checking and updating library accounts rest with the user.
 - b. Users must report any abuse or anonymous issuing of library materials on their accounts within 7 days of such misuse. The library will not be responsible for such misuse if complaints are not made within this time period.
 - c. Users are responsible for the passwords of their user accounts.
4. Materials must be returned or the users can self-renew library materials (lending) one time more, before the return date.
5. Users must return all borrowed library materials before they resign/retire/obtain long term leave from the University of Sri Jayewardenepura.
6. Library privileges are not transferable. Library accounts can only be used by the person named in the account.
7. According to university rules and regulations, you will be charged for lost, damaged or unreturned material.
8. Users must abide by the library rules and regulations passed by the Senate and the Council of the University of Sri Jayewardenepura.
9. Abuse of library rules and regulations may result in the loss of library privileges as a whole.

I hereby undertake to abide all rules, regulations and procedures of the library. I will be financially responsible for materials issued to me, which I agree to settle promptly. I also give my consent to deduct any unsettled dues at the time of my retirement/resignation from my University Provident Fund.
